SunTx Capital Partners Announces Second and Third add-Ons for Construction Partners, Inc.

Dallas, TX-December 10, 2002-SunTx Capital Partners (www.suntx.com) announced today that Construction Partners, Inc. ("CPI"), a SunTx Capital Partners portfolio company, has acquired Wiregrass Construction Company of Dothan, Alabama and Granger Construction Company of Panama City, Florida. The two acquisitions mark the second and third add-on acquisitions to the CPI's infrastructure platform. Terms of the transactions were not disclosed.

"Wiregrass and Granger Construction companies are excellent additions to our growing base of road construction assets," said Charles Owens, CPI's Chief Executive Officer. "The acquisitions offer CPI the ability to extend its reach in southeastern infrastructure markets," Mr. Owens continued.

Headquartered in Dothan, Alabama, Construction Partners, Inc. provides infrastructure and road construction services to both the public and private sectors in the southeastern United States. The company's services include asphalt manufacturing and paving along some of the most highly traveled sections in the area.

"The purchase of Wiregrass and Granger represent another important step in executing the strategic plan for CPI's continued growth," said Ned N. Fleming, managing partner of SunTx Capital Partners. "These properties represent the second and third acquisitions, in addition to a recent Greenfield expansion, that reflects CPI and SunTx's strategy of adding value to its portfolio companies from both an operational and financial stand point," said Mark R. Matteson, partner of SunTx.
